Mission Statement

Our faith-family of Immaculate Conception and its rich history and traditions, invite all Catholics to help them grow and mature as faithful followers of Jesus Christ.

April 5, 2020
 First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7
 Responsorial Psalm: 22:2, 8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24
 Second Reading: Romans 8:8-11
 Gospel: John 11:1-45

Week of: April 5th thru April 11th No Services
 Masses requested will be rescheduled.

During the next few weeks while the church is closed, you can attend mass daily on Facebook or You Tube. Several churches in the diocese are serving in this capacity. Father Clement Niggel has daily Mass at 7:00 a.m. You can friend him to attend his service via Facebook. Search Daily Mass. You can also look up other churches on the internet to view their site and see what they are doing.

You can download the bulletin on the website for our church to view any new information. Go to the bulletin tab and download the bulletin to view. The office will be open during this time if you have any questions or if you want to visit the Chapel.

ARCHDIOCESE OF SANTA FE CORONAVIRUS (COVID-2019) & FLU PRECAUTIONS

Due to the severity of the flu season and the international outbreak of the Coronavirus Disease (COVID-2019), the archdiocese will continue the liturgical safety measures and restrictions issued on January 7, 2020. Please read Archbishop John C. Wester's March 3, 2020 statement, "Liturgical Practices During the 2020 Flu Season and the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-2019) Outbreak" at www.archdiosf.org.

New Mexico is one of the states still listed by the U.S. Center of Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) as having widespread flu outbreaks and high influenza-like illness (IOL) Activity.

- ◆ Please stay home if you are sick or are experiencing symptoms. If you are ill, you are not bound by the obligation to attend Mass, including on Sunday. Out of charity to others sick individuals should not attend Mass or other liturgical events.
- ◆ During the Our Father, folded hands are the liturgical norm. Avoid bodily contact.
- ◆ During the Sign of Peace, simply nod your head toward one another. Avoid bodily contact.
- ◆ Communicants MUST receive Holy Communion in the hand. Please do not ask to receive on the tongue. The Archbishop grants dispensation to those who attend the Extraordinary form to receive in the hand during these restrictions.

The archdiocese institutes these directives not to limit expression of faith, but rather as a preventative against widespread and potentially deadly diseases. We continue to pray for all who are sick and affected by these virulent diseases.

With every best wish for the good health of all our brothers and sisters and asking our Lord, the Divine Physician, to bless us during this critical time, I remain Your brother in Christ, Most Reverend John C. Wester, Archbishop of Santa Fe

Palms will be blessed by Father this Sunday. They will be available in the entryway of the office for you to pick up. The door will be open for you to do so.

COLLECTIONS:

3/22: Sandra, Norma, Mary Ann 3/29: Kristy, Eloisa, Mary Ann
 4/5: Leeanna, Sylvia, Andy
 This schedule will be followed when we reopen.

To continue to run the normal business of the parish we ask that you continue to support the church by using your contribution envelopes. They can be mailed to the PO Box 100 address or dropped in the envelope slot at the front door of the office.

CALL THE OFFICE FOR TAX STATEMENTS.

WEEKLY CALENDAR OF EVENTS

All meetings have been cancelled until further notice. You will be notified when the restrictions are lifted.

Because of the COVID-19/coronavirus situation, the following guidelines for liturgies are promulgated for the Archdiocese in accordance with the decree of the Holy See of March 19, 2020 ("In Time of Covid-19"). These instructions apply to the Cathedral and parish churches.

1. Chrism Mass: postponed to a later date to be determined
2. Passion (Palm) Sunday and Paschal Triduum
 - a. General
 - i. Liturgies are to be celebrated without physical participation of the faithful
 - ii. The faithful should be informed of the times of celebration so that they can prayerfully unite themselves in their homes.
 - iii. Live (not recorded) televisual or internet broadcasts are helpful, if possible.
 - iv. Resources are to be provided to support family and personal prayer.
 - b. Passion (Palm) Sunday: Recommended is to bless the palms as normal in the Mass without the faithful and allow persons to retrieve them individually during the week. As a sacramental, it may provide some comfort to the faithful.
 - c. Holy Thursday
 - i. The faculty to celebrate Mass in a suitable place, without the people, is granted in an exceptional manner to all priests
 - ii. Washing of feet already optional, is to be omitted.
 - iii. At the End of the Mass, the procession with the Blessed Sacrament to the place of repose is to be omitted and the Blessed Sacrament is to be kept in the tabernacle.
 - iv. Priests unable to celebrate Mass should instead pray Vespers of the day.
 - d. Good Friday
 - i. The Archbishop/Parish Priest will celebrate the Passion of the Lord in the absence of the faithful.
 - ii. In the Universal Prayer, a special intention for the sick, the dead and for those who feel lost or dismayed is to be added (cf. Roman Missal, no. 13).
 - e. Easter Vigil & Easter
 - i. To be celebrated only in Cathedral and parish churches.
 - ii. At "The Solemn Beginning of the Vigil or Lucernarium" the preparation and lighting of the fire is omitted, the Paschal Candle is lit, the procession is omitted and the Easter Proclamation (Exsultet) follows.
 - iii. The Liturgy of the Word takes place.
 - iv. Regarding reception into the Church for catechumens and candidates, see (f) in the bottom of the following page.
 - v. For the "Baptismal Liturgy" the "Renewal of Baptismal Promises" alone is necessary (Roman Missal, No. 55).
 - vi. The Liturgy of the Eucharist then follows.
 - vii. Those clergy who have absolutely no possibility of uniting themselves to the Paschal Vigil celebrated in a church should pray the Office of Readings for Easter Sunday. The faithful are also encouraged to read from the rites if possible.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Human beings are united in their suffering. When we find ourselves in a painful moment, our first reaction is “why me”? as if we are the only person on earth who ever encountered this challenge. Going through life with a “why me” attitude only finds us wallowing in the mire of self-pity and never seizing opportunities or graces. We walk in solidarity with every human being in the experience of suffering. Believing that the goal of life is the elimination or avoidance of suffering is simply an illusion that keeps us entrenched in a collective myth. This myth distorts us and limits us.

There are living witnesses among us showing how courage and determination can overcome any degree of hardship, pain, loss, or tragedy. Folks finding the normalcy of their lives suddenly torn asunder are faced with options: opportunity or despair, stay or leave. Jesus stands before us as the prime example of endurance and perseverance. He is the One who showed humility through both the triumphs of life (by learning to be humble) and the tragedies and injustices (by learning how to be obedient). To secular ears, this may be perceived as nonsense. But to those with the eyes of faith, they are pearls of great price.

True humility tempers the temptation we have to become complacent and prevents an excessive relishing of life’s successes and affirmations. Learning obedience keeps us faithful to our relationship with God so that we can find the courage to endure any depth of hardship, disappointment, betrayal, or agony. While we may want our cup of suffering to be taken away, it simply cannot be. Somehow and somewhere in the seemingly opposing experiences life can deal us, God is present with His reassuring, compassionate, empowering, and persevering love. To be true to who we are and who God is, we must take up the cross of suffering, even when it’s the hardest and most apparently senseless thing to do.

Only our soul can understand these things, but our minds cannot, so they continue to run to secular ideas and solutions to pain and hardship. It goes without saying that we need to do all we can to eliminate as much senseless, unjust suffering as possible. Hunger, violence, abuse, exploitation, rejection, prejudice, homelessness, disrespect for life, and a whole host of other sins all result in suffering that is within our control. Then, when we face the uncontrollable kind of suffering or find ourselves the victims of injustice, what do we do?

Spanish Language TV Mass is on My50TV(KASY) every Sunday at 7:00 am. Channel 50 on regular TV or Channel 12 on Comcast.

Preparacion Matrimonial En Espanol: Abril 24, 25, 26, Julio 7, 18, 19 y noviembre 6, 7, 8 de 2020. Costo: $65 por pareja. Madonna Hall, Archdiocese of Santa Fe, 4000 St. Joseph’s Pl. NW. Para inscribirse o mas informacion llame al 505-831-8147.

The Archdiocese of Santa Fe entered into Chapter 11 Reorganization during the first week of December 2018. The utmost concern is for the victims of abuse. Our prayers are with them.

The Annual Catholic Appeal Foundation is not part of the Chapter 11 filing. ACA is separately incorporated and funding is not available for legal claims. ACA remains a significant source of funding for the ministries and services of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe throughout this process and beyond. Christ’s loving work must endure through this. Thank you for continuing to support these efforts.

f. Reception of Catechumens ad Candidates: In order that those being received into the Church are not deprived of the attendance and support of friends and family, such reception is to be delayed until such time that the current Covid-19 is alleviated and a fuller celebration possible. On a designated Sunday Archbishop Wester will grant an indulgent for sacraments normally received at the Easter Vigil to be celebrated. This will also allow pastors more time to complete validations of marriage for those in irregular situations.

SCHEDULES

NOTIFICATIONS WILL BE SENT OUT TO THE SERVERS UPON RESTRICTION BEING LIFTED.

Daily Reflections during the Lenten Season:

- 4/5: Jesus Emptied Himself—How can you follow Jesus’ example of suffering service?
- 4/6: Be Not Afraid! - Faced with suffering, we need not fear for God is with us.
- 4/7: Give God Glory! - God’s servant gives glory to God through his suffering
- 4/8: One of You Will Betray Me—Pray that you will not betray Jesus today.
- 4/9: My Body Given for You—How can you give yourself for others as Jesus did?
- 4/10: Behold, the Man! - Jesus suffers and dies to open our way to God.
- 4/11: He Has Been Raised! - God rewards Jesus’ faithfulness by giving him new life.

ARCHDIOCESE WORKSHOP—ABUSE AWARENESS
APRIL 25, 2020, SATURDAY, 10:00 AM-1:00 PM. ST. THERESE OF
THE INFANT JESUS PARISH HALL 212 MILDRED NW 702-1259

IMPORTANT: For two years we have urged all of our members who are in a ministry to take the class on “Protecting God’s Children”. Many have not done so. The Archdiocese of Santa Fe mandates that this class be taken. This is for your protection. Please do not let this next year go by without taking this class. If you feel that there is a reason that you are unable or care to take the class, please call the office; otherwise we expect you to comply. It takes only 45 minutes to take the class online. In order to be in a ministry or volunteer in any capacity, this is mandatory.

“Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, ‘God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end.

“Tal como nosotros, Cristo entro en el mundo por dedicacion del vientre de una mujer. El voluntariamente asumio la plenitud del sufrimiento humano. Exhalo su ultimo suspiro en la cruz del Calvario para poder salvarnos. Por lo tanto, “Dios es el fundamento de la esperanza; pero no cualquier dios, sino el Dios que tiene un rostro humano y que nos ha amado hasta el extremo”.
