The Archdiocese of Santa Fe entered into Chapter 11 Reorganization during the first week of December 2018. The utmost concern is for the victims of abuse. Our prayers are with them.

The Annual Catholic Appeal Foundation is not part of the Chapter 11 filing. ACA is separately incorporated and funding is not available for legal claims. ACA remains a significant source of funding for the ministries and services of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe throughout this process and beyond. Christ's loving work must endure through this. Thank you for continuing to support these efforts.

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We are hardwired for wholeness and crave it. When something is broken, we want it fixed. If a part of our body is not working properly, we want it healed. How often do we find ourselves saying, “I’m tired of struggling with this cold, I can’t wait for my surgery to heal, or I want my treatments to make me better.” Wholeness and healing restore our relationships and make us free to love as we desire. We know very well how our limitations, imperfections, and brokenness really limit us. They can easily prevent us from being and doing what we want to do.

Our physical and emotional wounds and maladies are easier to identify. If my back hurts, I feel it and know what part of my body needs attention. If I am feeling intense anger, I can identify the emotion and take necessary steps to uncover its cause. Being persistent often brings greater and quicker results. But will pursuing and even achieving our physical and emotional healings really be enough? We forget that there is a deeper healing that we seek and desperately need. As we look around at humanity, there are some physical and emotional wounds and scars that cannot be made whole. They are limitations that must remain and, for one reason or another, cannot be rectified. Does this mean that the wholeness and healing that my being longs for is not possible for me? Must I settle with less than what God promises.

The answer is no. Ultimately, there is a desire that goes deeper than the physical and emotional. It is a desire that resides in our soul. What we really seek and thirst for is healing and wholeness for our soul. Inner strength, conviction, focus, grounding, love, hope, faith, courage, determination, peace and connectedness are all words that center us on eternity. They direct us to a presence we discover in our core, which is none other than the presence of God. In God, we are healed. When we are persistent in reaching out to and establishing our relationship with God, real healing and wholeness begin to happen.

There are some limitations and some of our brokenness with which we may simply have to live. This does not mean that we have to abandon our journey to wholeness and healing. If we have done our inner soul work, we have worked toward and acquired what and who we ultimately need and desire.

As we get communications from the Archdiocese, you will be kept informed through the bulletin:
July 31 Communication from the Archdiocese regarding the COVID-19:

- ◆ Communion Restriction change: If desired, pastors can arrange Communion so that communicants may receive inside the church if they leave directly thereafter—at the sanctuary, at the doors or in another convenient location which facilitates social distance and ease of movement. Also, please reiterate care by communicants of reverence for the hosts and to ensure they are consumed and not dropped.
- ◆ Also reports have been received of some homilies going on for well over the 5-minute limit set by the Archbishop; this not only increases exposure time to others, but increases the discomfiture of many congregants, to the point of some not attending Mass because of it. If such long homilies continue, the Archbishop will consider severe actions for subject clergy, up to and including possible suspension of the faculty to preach.
- ◆ New information to be released regarding CCD classes. Parents will be kept informed.

20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“El aborto afecta a innumerables matrimonios más de lo que muchas personas reconocen. Pero no hay duda de que Dios llevará una gran sanación a quienes confían en su misericordia infinita. Si un aborto del pasado puede reconocerse y tratarse una pareja casada puede dar grandes pasos en vivir incluso más plenamente el designio de Dios de que ‘serán los dos una sola carne’”.

“Abortion affects countless marriages more than many people recognize. But there is no doubt that God will bring great healing to those who trust in his infinite mercy. If a past abortion can be acknowledged and addressed, a married couple can make great strides in experiencing even more fully God’s design that ‘the two shall become one’.”
