ARCHDIOCESE OF SANTA FE CORONAVIRUS (COVID-2019) & FLU PRECAUTIONS

Due to the severity of the flu season and the international outbreak of the Coronavirus Disease (COVID-2019), the archdiocese will continue the liturgical safety measures and restrictions issued on January 7, 2020. Please read Archbishop John C. Wester's March 3, 2020 statement, "Liturgical Practices During the 2020 Flu Season and the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-2019) Outbreak" at www.archdiosf.oerg.

New Mexico is one of the states still listed by the U.S. Center of Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) as having widespread flu outbreaks and high influenza-like illness (IOL) Activity.

- ◆ Please stay home if you are sick or are experiencing symptoms. If you are ill, you are not bound by the obligation to attend Mass, including on Sunday. Out of charity to others sick individuals should not attend Mass or other liturgical events.
- ◆ During the Our Father, folded hands are the liturgical norm. Avoid bodily contact.
- ◆ During the Sign of Peace, simply nod your head toward one another. Avoid bodily contact.
- ◆ Communicants MUST receive Holy Communion in the hand. Please do not ask to receive on the tongue. The Archbishop grants dispensation to those who attend the Extraordinary form to receive in the hand during these restrictions.

The archdiocese institutes these directives not to limit expression of faith, but rather as a preventative against widespread and potentially deadly diseases. We continue to pray for all who are sick and affected by these virulent diseases.

With every best wish for the good health of all our brothers and sisters and asking our Lord, the Divine Physician, to bless us during this critical time, I remain Your brother in Christ, Most Reverend John C. Wester, Archbishop of Santa Fe

The Stations of the Cross normally held on Friday have been cancelled. You can still pray the Stations of the Cross at home. Use this time to go back to what we did in the past. Bring prayer time back to the home.

Because of the COVID-19/coronavirus situation, the following guidelines for liturgies are promulgated for the Archdiocese in accordance with the decree of the Holy See of March 19, 2020 ("In Time of Covid-19"). These instructions apply to the Cathedral and parish churches.

1. Chrism Mass: postponed to a later date to be determined
2. Passion (Palm) Sunday and Paschal Triduum
  - a. General
    - i. Liturgies are to be celebrated without physical participation of the faithful
    - ii. The faithful should be informed of the times of celebration so that they can prayerfully unite themselves in their homes.
    - iii. Live (not recorded) televisual or internet broadcasts are helpful, if possible.
    - iv. Resources are to be provided to support family and personal prayer.
  - b. Passion (Palm) Sunday: Recommended is to bless the palms as normal in the Mass without the faithful and allow persons to retrieve them individually during the week. As a sacramental, it may provide some comfort to the faithful.
  - c. Holy Thursday
    - i. The faculty to celebrate Mass in a suitable place, without the people, is granted in an exceptional manner to all priests
    - ii. Washing of feet already optional, is to be omitted.
    - iii. At the End of the Mass, the procession with the Blessed Sacrament to the place of repose is to be omitted and the Blessed Sacrament is to be kept in the tabernacle.
    - iv. Priests unable to celebrate Mass should instead pray Vespers of the day.
  - d. Good Friday
    - i. The Archbishop/Parish Priest will celebrate the Passion of the Lord in the absence of the faithful.
    - ii. In the Universal Prayer, a special intention for the sick, the dead and for those who feel lost or dismayed is to be added (cf. Roman Missal, no. 13).
  - e. Easter Vigil & Easter
    - i. To be celebrated only in Cathedral and parish churches.
    - ii. At "The Solemn Beginning of the Vigil or Lucernarium" the preparation and lighting of the fire is omitted, the Paschal Candle is lit, the procession is omitted and the Easter Proclamation (Exsultet) follows.
    - iii. The Liturgy of the Word takes place.
    - iv. Regarding reception into the Church for catechumens and candidates, see (f) in the bottom of the following page.
    - v. For the "Baptismal Liturgy" the "Renewal of Baptismal Promises" alone is necessary (Roman Missal, No. 55).
    - vi. The Liturgy of the Eucharist then follows.
    - vii. Those clergy who have absolutely no possibility of uniting themselves to the Paschal Vigil celebrated in a church should pray the Office of Readings for Easter Sunday. The faithful are also encouraged to read from the rites if possible.

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Even though we say that we believe, there is a part of us that doesn't. There are many times in our lives when we experience death, whether it be the physical death of someone we love, a failed relationship, the loss of a job, or a broken dream. As we are going through these death experiences, we can easily find ourselves reaching out to God to make it better and fix it! We think that the proper order of life is to maintain the things of this world, especially those things that are essential to our sense of well-being and security. We do not like change. The grieving that comes from our death experiences can keep us stuck and in despair. If we have lost something or someone of great value, the very meaning and essence of life is lost with them. We need gentle companions to lift us from despair and that is precisely who God desires to be in our life as well.

God calls us out of our tombs, where we have been closed up in fear and despair, and shouts, "Come out! He desperately wants to show us the path to hope and the new life that is possible after loss and death. But our faith can be weak, and we still prefer to cling to the memory of what we had rather than the joyful possibilities of tomorrow. We sometimes live as if God is not real and that the transformative power of His resurrected presence is a story found in the Bible rather than a narrative unfolding in our lives.

God is the God of surprises, not our demise. God opens new possibilities, begins new chapters, creates new verses, and brings us to new heights! We spend so much time and energy ruminating over what we left behind yesterday that we are far too tired to see what can unfold tomorrow. Loving someone new doesn't negate our past loves. Embracing the love of a person, God, or life itself tomorrow doesn't diminish the love of yesterday. Each of our loves is different, and one cannot be replaced by another. They don't cancel each other out. God truly has tended to every detail of our lives, and if we listen to each detail, we find that they all lead us back to Him. Jesus wants us to come out of our closed-up tombs. Are we going to listen this time?

Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world." — Jn. 11:25-27

Spanish Language TV Mass is on My50TV(KASY) every Sunday at 7:00 am. Channel 50 on regular TV or Channel 12 on Comcast.

Preparacion Matrimonial En Espanol: Abril 24, 25, 26, Julio 7, 18, 19 y noviembre 6, 7, 8 de 2020. Costo: $65 por pareja. Madonna Hall, Archdiocese of Santa Fe, 4000 St. Joseph's Pl. NW. Para inscribirse o mas informacion llame al 505-831-8147.

The Archdiocese of Santa Fe entered into Chapter 11 Reorganization during the first week of December 2018. The utmost concern is for the victims of abuse. Our prayers are with them.

The Annual Catholic Appeal Foundation is not part of the Chapter 11 filing. ACA is separately incorporated and funding is not available for legal claims. ACA remains a significant source of funding for the ministries and services of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe throughout this process and beyond. Christ's loving work must endure through this. Thank you for continuing to support these efforts.

f. Reception of Catechumens ad Candidates: In order that those being received into the Church are not deprived of the attendance and support of friends and family, such reception is to be delayed until such time that the current Covid-19 is alleviated and a fuller celebration possible. On a designated Sunday Archbishop Wester will grant an indulgent for sacraments normally received at the Easter Vigil to be celebrated. This will also allow pastors more time to complete validations of marriage for those in irregular situations.

IMPORTANT: For two years we have urged all of our members who are in a ministry to take the class on "Protecting God's Children". Many have not done so. The Archdiocese of Santa Fe mandates that this class be taken. This is for your protection. Please do not let this next year go by without taking this class. If you feel that there is a reason that you are unable or care to take the class, please call the office; otherwise we expect you to comply. It takes only 45 minutes to take the class online. In order to be in a ministry or volunteer in any capacity, this is mandatory.

"With great openness and courage, we need to question how widespread is the culture of life today among individual Christians, families, groups and communities in our Dioceses. With equal clarity and determination we must identify the steps we are called to take in order to serve life in all its truth".

"Debemos preguntarnos, con gran lucidez y valentia, que cultura de la vida se difunde hoy entre los cristianos, las familias, los grupos y las comunidades de nuestras diocesis. Con la misma claridad y decision, debemos determinar que pasos hemos de dar para servir a la vida segun la plenitud de su verdad" (El Evangelio de la Vida 95).
