Father Clement Niggel has daily Mass at 7:00 a.m. You can friend him to attend his service via Facebook. You can also look up other churches on the internet to view their site and see what they are doing.

You can download the bulletin on the website for our church to view any new information. Go to the bulletin tab and download the bulletin to view. The office will not be open during this time. If you have any questions or if you want to visit the Chapel, please leave a message. Messages are reviewed daily. We can only have a maximum of 5 persons at a time and they must respect the social distancing criteria. Holy Water from Holy Saturday services is available at the entrance to the office. The door will be open on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays for your convenience.

ARCHDIOCESE OF SANTA FE CORONAVIRUS (COVID-2019) & FLU PRECAUTIONS

Due to the severity of the flu season and the international outbreak of the Coronavirus Disease (COVID-2019), the archdiocese will continue the liturgical safety measures and restrictions issued on January 7, 2020. Please read Archbishop John C. Wester's March 3, 2020 statement, "Liturgical Practices During the 2020 Flu Season and the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-2019) Outbreak" at www.archdiosf.org.

New Mexico is one of the states still listed by the U.S. Center of Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) as having widespread flu outbreaks and high influenza-like illness (IOL) Activity.

- ◆ Please stay home if you are sick or are experiencing symptoms. If you are ill, you are not bound by the obligation to attend Mass, including on Sunday. Out of charity to others sick individuals should not attend Mass or other liturgical events.
- ◆ During the Our Father, folded hands are the liturgical norm. Avoid bodily contact.
- ◆ During the Sign of Peace, simply nod your head toward one another. Avoid bodily contact.
- ◆ Communicants MUST receive Holy Communion in the hand. Please do not ask to receive on the tongue. The Archbishop grants dispensation to those who attend the Extraordinary form to receive in the hand during these restrictions.

The archdiocese institutes these directives not to limit expression of faith, but rather as a preventative against widespread and potentially deadly diseases. We continue to pray for all who are sick and affected by these virulent diseases.

With every best wish for the good health of all our brothers and sisters and asking our Lord, the Divine Physician, to bless us during this critical time, I remain Your brother in Christ, Most Reverend John C. Wester, Archbishop of Santa Fe

Mother's Day, May 10, 2020

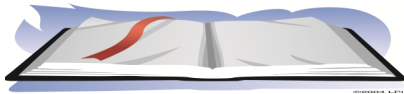

Mother's Day is a wonderful opportunity to highlight the beautiful vocation of motherhood and the gift of life. It calls us to cherish the gift of life that we receive from our mothers and to pray for all women to whom God has entrusted life in a very special way. We also specifically remember mothers experiencing unexpected or difficult pregnancies and pray they may find support and encouragement in choosing life for their children.

El Día de las Madres es una maravillosa oportunidad para destacar la bella vocación de la maternidad y el don de la vida. Nos llama a atesorar el don de la vida que recibimos de nuestra madre y a rezar por todas las mujeres a las que Dios les ha confiado la vida de una manera muy especial. También recordamos especialmente a las madres que tienen un embarazo inesperado o difícil, y rezamos para que encuentren apoyo y aliento para elegir la vida para sus hijos.

May is the month of Mary, our Mother. Let us pray the Rosary at home with our families. Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners.

Fifth Sunday of Easter

When earthly lives end, especially when the person is younger, we tend to focus upon and consider what was lost. We think of lost opportunities—things they won't be able to see, babies they won't be able to cradle, and adventures that now must go undiscovered. Our minds create this chasm between earth and heaven that sees the losses of this life as permanent ones, never possible to achieve gains. This perception causes many folks to remain stuck in their grief as they ponder all of the missed opportunities and regrets.

This is not resurrection thinking. All of the love that we can give and receive, the joy and elation that can be experienced, the adventures that can be undertaken, and the possibilities to be discovered are all part of a continuous journey. They are not ends in and of themselves but are all part of the unfolding of a relationship we have with God, who not only makes all of these wonderful things possible now but sustains them and fulfills them into eternity. The perception and experience of loss is really an illusion, because in God's eternal kingdom and in God's time, nothing is ever lost. Even the most intimate and tender of moments we can conceive of sharing with another human being are only part of a journey toward perfect intimate and tender moments to be shared with God in our resurrected life. We become like God and see God as He is in eternity. What greater joy, love and hope can ever be discovered as we walk down our often dimly lit paths in this world.

This is an awesome wonder and magnificent news to behold. Call to mind someone you have lost in death. How do you see them now? How do you see yourself in heaven? Remind yourself, again, that God is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Our happiness is not going to be fully realized in this world, and there is nothing we can find here that cannot be found one hundred fold in eternity. It's all about relationship, and not solely about the relationships we have with each other, ourselves, and the world in which we live. It's about our relationship with God. If we realize how special that one relationship really is, then there is only one particular of heaven and life eternal that really matters: namely, that we fall into love eternal and discover truth. For when we finally close our eyes in death, then all will be well as long as we are with God. There are no losses, only gains.

Spanish Language TV Mass is on My50TV(KASY) every Sunday at 7:00 am. Channel 50 on regular TV or Channel 12 on Comcast.

Preparacion Matrimonial En Espanol: Julio 7, 18, 19 y noviembre 6, 7, 8 de 2020. Costo: $65 por pareja. Madonna Hall, Archdiocese of Santa Fe, 4000 St. Joseph's Pl. NW. Para inscribirse o mas informacion llame al 505-831-8147.

The Archdiocese of Santa Fe entered into Chapter 11 Reorganization during the first week of December 2018. The utmost concern is for the victims of abuse. Our prayers are with them.

The Annual Catholic Appeal Foundation is not part of the Chapter 11 filing. ACA is separately incorporated and funding is not available for legal claims. ACA remains a significant source of funding for the ministries and services of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe throughout this process and beyond. Christ's loving work must endure through this. Thank you for continuing to support these efforts.

Thank you parishioners for sending in your contribution envelopes. This is so greatly appreciated. We are able to keep up with the bills as best we can. The parish, like any other household, has to continue to run in the best way possible. Electricity, gas, payroll, telephone and other bills continue to come in on a regular basis. They don't take time off because of the virus. Although we do not like to place more importance on money than spirituality, we still have to maintain our church obligations. Again, we cannot thank you enough for your generosity. We continue to pray for everyone during this time and ask our Lord to help us make it through. Father Jose

SCHEDULES

NOTIFICATIONS WILL BE SENT OUT TO THE SERVERS UPON RESTRICTION BEING LIFTED.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION: Renovation of the interior of our church is scheduled to begin this coming week. Masses will be held in the San Juan Diego Parish Hall. A place has been set up for the Blessed Sacrament for those who wish to pray in the quietness of Jesus presence. We will keep everyone posted as to what is going on and how long this endeavor is to take. We want to take this opportunity to thank each and everyone of you for allowing this to happen. Your generosity towards this building renovation is greatly appreciated. We will also keep everyone informed as to when Masses will again be celebrated. It may mean that we can only have a limited number of parishioners attend. We'll see as time goes by. God Bless Everyone!!

ARCHDIOCESE WORKSHOP—ABUSE AWARENESS
May 14, 2020, Thursday, 6:00 PM-9:00 PM. OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE, PERALTA, Call Annette at 869-6993 to register.

IMPORTANT: For two years we have urged all of our members who are in a ministry to take the class on "Protecting God's Children". Many have not done so. The Archdiocese of Santa Fe mandates that this class be taken. This is for your protection. Please do not let this next year go by without taking this class. If you feel that there is a reason that you are unable or care to take the class, please call the office; otherwise we expect you to comply. It takes only 45 minutes to take the class online. In order to be in a ministry or volunteer in any capacity, this is mandatory.

Mothers are a gift from God. God knew what He was doing when He created women with the ability to nurture life.

Mother's Day honors all our mothers and their enormous sacrifices. Mother's Day encompasses more than just the honoring of those who have borne children. It is the celebration of motherhood—the divine nature of women. May we all feel a deeper appreciation for the great blessing of motherhood, not just when we celebrate Mother's Day, but everyday!

Our culture of death undermines both motherhood and the God-given gift and blessing of children. May we also help the next generation reclaim and respect this incredible gift of MOTHERHOOD!
